Foreword

THE First Exhibition of Little Pictures by Canadian Artists was a success. What made it succeed was that it fulfilled just what it promised, viz., to provide an opportunity for Canadian people to see Canadian pictures suitable for their homes. It was an Exhibition of Pictures for a home rather than for a house.

In this Second Exhibition there are two hundred and seventy-nine pictures, representing the work of thirty-seven Canadian artists, some of whom are exhibiting for the first time in Toronto.

The Committee which assumes the responsibility for opening this Exhibition are:

GEORGE H. LOCKE, Chairman
JAMES MACCALLUM, M.D.
LAWREN HARRIS, Treasurer
ARTHUR HEMING, Secretary
